Theme: God's Loving Paths

Sentence:

The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.

Mark 1.15

Prayer of the day:

God of the new and eternal covenant,
as the forty days of the great flood swept away the world's corruption and watered new beginnings of righteousness and life:
grant to us, who are washed clean and born again
in the saving flood of baptism, the wellspring of your grace,
that your gift of new life may flourish
once again;
through Jesus Christ our Redeemer,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Genesis:

Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, "As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth." God said, "This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds, I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth." God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth."

A Reading from the Book of Psalms::
(to be read by alternate verses)

1. To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul.
2. O my God, in you I trust; do not let me be put to shame; do not let my enemies exult over me.
3. Do not let those who wait for you be put to shame; let them be ashamed who are wantonly treacherous.
4. Make me to know your ways, O LORD; teach me your paths.
5. Lead me in your truth, and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all day long.
6. Be mindful of your mercy, O LORD, and of your steadfast love, for they have been from of old.

7. Do not remember the sins of my youth or my transgressions; according to your steadfast love remember me, for your goodness' sake, O LORD!
8. Good and upright is the LORD; therefore he instructs sinners in the way.
9. He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way.
10. All the paths of the LORD are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his decrees.

Psalms 25.1-10 [NRSV]

A Reading from The First Letter of Peter:

For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit, in which also he went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison, who in former times did not obey, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were saved through water. And baptism, which this prefigured, now saves you--not as a removal of dirt from the body, but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to him.

1 Peter 3.18-22 [NRSV]

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark Chapter 1 beginning at verse 9:

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

And the Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness. He was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels waited on him.

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news."

Mark 1.9-15 [NRSV]

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ
