PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE:

We ask Lord, that you be with us, as we open our hearts and minds to you, laying our requests before you and thanking you for all your good works.

Lord we thank you for our families and pray that we live our lives, reflecting your love in our relationships. Be a presence in our homes and help us to serve you faithfully, through our lives together.

Let us praise the Lord

Thanks be to God

We pray for your world wide church, particularly praying for those who are persecuted for practising their faith or are unable to gather together for communal worship. We ask for your blessings on Archbishop Phillip Aspinall, Bishop John Roundhill and Rev'd Morris. We thank you for their continued support and guidance. We pray for the Parish of Algester and all who worship here.

Let us praise the Lord

Thanks be to God

Today's passage from Romans encourages us to provide humble service in the Body of Christ. We thank you that we are able to come together in this place to worship. We thank you for the generosity of all who volunteer in this parish and ask that you guide our hearts and minds to do your will.

Let us praise the Lord

Thanks be to God

We lift up to you Lord all those who are suffering due to the pandemic. For those who have died, families who are grieving, those who are ill, those who have lost jobs and income, those who have lost their homes or are in isolation. May they know the comfort of your loving presence.

Let us praise the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gracious God, may all who suffer in mind, body or spirit come to know your healing power. We pray especially for any family and friends that are currently in need and ask for your blessing of healing. We pray for those on our pew sheet.....

Let us praise the Lord

Thanks be to God

May all those in the final stages of terminal illness find strength to face the journey ahead. May they, and all who have gone before them, be witness to your promise of eternal life. Bring comfort and reassurance to family and friends as they bear witness to their loved one's journey.

We lift up our prayers to you and ask that you accept our prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord who taught us to pray,

Our Father in heaven .....

PRAYER AND READINGS

THEME: WHO DO YOU SAY THAT I AM?

SENTENCE:

Jesus said to them, 'Who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter answered, 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.'

Matthew 16.15-16

OUR PARISH PRAYER:

*Heavenly Father,
help us to grow in love, faith and obedience as we discover meaning and direction for today
and hope for tomorrow through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

PRAYER OF THE WEEK:

O God, fount of all wisdom,
in the humble witness of the apostle Peter
you have shown the foundation of our faith:
give us the light of your Spirit,
that, recognising in Jesus of Nazareth the Son of the living God,
we may be living stones for the building up of your holy Church;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A READING FROM EXODUS, CHAPTER 1, VERSE 8
- CHAPTER 2, VERSE 10:

Now a new king arose over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. He said to his people, 'Look, the Israelite people are more numerous and more powerful than we. Come, let us deal shrewdly with them, or they will increase and, in the event of war, join our enemies and fight against us and escape from the land.' Therefore they set taskmasters over them to oppress them with forced labour. They built supply cities, Pithom and Rameses, for Pharaoh. But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread, so that the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites. The Egyptians became ruthless in imposing tasks on the Israelites, and made their lives bitter with hard service in mortar and brick and in every kind of field labour. They were ruthless in all the tasks that they imposed on them.

The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other Puah, 'When you act as midwives to the Hebrew women, and see them on the birthstool, if it is a boy, kill him; but if it is a girl, she shall live.' But the midwives feared God; they did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but they let the boys live. So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them, 'Why have you done this, and allowed the boys to live?' The midwives said to Pharaoh, 'Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwife comes to them.' So God dealt well with the midwives; and the people multiplied and became very strong. And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families. Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, 'Every boy that is born to the Hebrews you shall throw into the Nile, but you shall let every girl live.'

Now a man from the house of Levi went and married a Levite woman. The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was a fine baby, she hid him for three months. When she could hide him no longer she got a papyrus basket for him, and plastered it with bitumen and pitch; she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river. His sister stood at a distance, to see what would happen to him.

The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her attendants walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to bring it. When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying, and she took pity on him. 'This must be one of the Hebrews' children,' she said. Then his sister said to

AUGUST 23, 2020 - TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Pharaoh's daughter, 'Shall I go and get you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?' Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Yes.' So the girl went and called the child's mother. Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages.' So the woman took the child and nursed it. When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and she took him as her son. She named him Moses, 'because', she said, 'I drew him out of the water.'

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF PSALMS:

PSALM 124

1. If the Lord had not been on our side,
now may Israel say:
if the Lord had not been on our side,
when our enemies rose against us,
2. Then they would have swallowed us alive:
when their anger was kindled against us.
3. Then the waters would have overwhelmed us, and the torrent gone over us:
the raging waters would have gone clean over us.
4. But praised be the Lord:
who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.
5. We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowler:
the snare is broken, and we have gone free.
6. Our help is in the name of the Lord:
who has made heaven and earth.

A READING FROM THE LETTER OF PAUL TO THE ROMANS, CHAPTER 12, VERSES 1-8:

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgement, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

THE GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
ACCORDING TO MATTHEW, CHAPTER 16, VERSES 13-20:

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter answered, 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.' And Jesus answered him, 'Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.' Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

This is the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ
