PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE:

Our Father in heaven, You are great and do wondrous things. Thank You for caring for us and loving us so much that You sent Jesus to die for us so that we can be reconciled to You. Today we remember our earthly fathers and thank You that they loved us and cared for us. For those who did not experience a father's loving care, bless them in a very special way so they are able to see You as the ultimate Father.

Father hear our prayer.

Thank you, Father, for the wonderful world You have created. Help us to care for it to bring You honour and glory. I pray for all the people in our world that You will send Your people to those who do not know You so they can experience Your love and forgiveness.

Father hear our prayer.

For all those in authority let them realise the responsibility they have in ruling and that all power and authority comes from You. Guide them to rule wisely and justly so that Your Kingdom can be extended through society.

For our Church Leaders Bless them and guide them as they lead us in Your ways. Help them in this time of isolation and stress over many frustrating issues to be an example of Your peace, love and faith. May they draw very near to You so that Your qualities will flow through them to the people.

Father hear our prayer.

Father, heal the sick and the wounded and provide for those who have lost their jobs. Many are confused and distressed, homeless and hungry and do not know where to turn. Help us, Your children, to show them the love You have shown us so they come to know Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour and You as their Heavenly Father.

Father hear our prayer.

We bring before you those on our prayer list.....Bless each and every one and meet the deepest needs of their hearts as well as their physical needs.

Father, accept our prayers through Jesus Christ Who taught us to pray:

Our Father in heaven

The Archbishop has requested that a letter from the National Council of Churches in Australia encouraging a time of National Prayer regarding the pandemic, be observed on the following weekend:

SATURDAY 26 - SUNDAY 27 SEPTEMBER

Here is a prayer that might be helpful in the lead up to September 26-27.

“Gracious God, trusting in your providence and presence, we bring our prayer for an end to this pandemic.

We pray for your strengthening of those offering costly leadership during this crisis.

We pray for all who are ill.

We pray for those anxious about getting ill.

We pray for those full of grief.

We remember those who have died.

We pray for your grace to sustain us as we do what we can in our context.

We ask these things, as you encourage us so to do. “Ask and it will be given you.” (Matthew 7:7).

In resurrection faith, we offer our heartfelt prayer through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.”

The Jogini practice has seen thousands of girls dedicated to the temple goddess and trapped in a life of ritualised sexual abuse. DFN works to combat this form of human trafficking and slavery; preventing the dedications of vulnerable young girls and empowering women to leave the practice.

PRAYER AND READINGS

THEME: WHERE TWO OR THREE GATHER

SENTENCE:

'Where two or three are gathered in my name,' says the Lord, 'I am there among them.'

Matthew 18.20

OUR PARISH PRAYER:

Heavenly Father, help us to grow in love, faith and obedience as we discover meaning and direction for today and hope for tomorrow through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY:

Go before us, O Lord, and further us with your continual help, that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in you, we may glorify your holy name, and finally, by your mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A READING FROM EXODUS, CHAPTER 12, VERSE 1-14:

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you. Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household. If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbour in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats. You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembled congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight. They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. They shall eat the lamb that same night; they shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and inner organs. You shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn. This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the passover of the Lord. For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgements: I am the Lord. The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the Lord; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF PSALMS:

PSALM 149

1 O praise the Lord, and sing to the Lord a new song:
O praise him in the assembly of the faithful.
2 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their king.
3 Let them praise him in the dance:
let them sing his praise with timbrel and with harp.

SEPTEMBER 6, 2020 - FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

4 For the Lord takes delight in his people: he adorns the meek with his salvation.

5 Let his faithful ones exult in his glory: let them sing for joy upon their beds.

6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouths:

and a two-edged sword in their hands,

7 To execute vengeance on the nations: and chastisement upon the peoples,

8 To bind their kings in chains: and their nobles with fetters of iron,

9 To visit upon them the judgement that is decreed:

such honour belongs to all his faithful servants. Praise the Lord.

A READING FROM THE LETTER OF PAUL TO THE ROMANS, CHAPTER 13, VERSES 1-10:

Let every person be subject to the governing authorities; for there is no authority except from God, and those authorities that exist have been instituted by God. Therefore whoever resists authority resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgement. For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Do you wish to have no fear of the authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive its approval; for it is God's servant for your good. But if you do what is wrong, you should be afraid, for the authority does not bear the sword in vain! It is the servant of God to execute wrath on the wrongdoer. Therefore one must be subject, not only because of wrath but also because of conscience. For the same reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, busy with this very thing. Pay to all what is due to them—taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honour to whom honour is due. Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, 'You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet'; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, 'Love your neighbour as yourself.' Love does no wrong to a neighbour; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

THE GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST ACCORDING TO MATTHEW, CHAPTER 18, VERSES 10-20:

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

'Take care that you do not despise one of these little ones; for, I tell you, in heaven their angels continually see the face of my Father in heaven. What do you think? If a shepherd has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray? And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray. So it is not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost.

'If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax-collector. Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ
