PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE:

Heavenly Father, in the beginning, out of nothing, you created this world we live in. You gave us "all things, bright and beautiful, all creatures, great and small" * and for this we thank you. You gave us many wonderful eco systems: deserts, mountains, forests, fertile plains and the endless delight of our oceans and you populated them with creatures and plants for our sustenance and delight. Help us Lord to be good stewards of all that you have given and to be aware of our footprint on this beautiful, resilient yet fragile planet.
 Creator God: we give you thanks and praise.

Heavenly Father, we thank you for your church, for all the people everywhere who are the living stones of your earthly home. We thank you that you have inspired men and women to compose glorious music to honour and worship you and design and build magnificent cathedrals to the glory of your name. Most of all Father we thank you for the men, women and children who today believe in you and worship you, collectively or alone, and we ask for your blessing and guidance on each one of us and especially on Reverend Denis and his family.
 Creator God: we give you thanks and praise.

Heavenly Father, in our gospel reading today we heard of your son Jesus providing food for his people, an act of love and compassion. Help us Lord to see those around us who may be struggling in some way and give us hearts of compassion to reach out to them. We pray for the people listed in our pew sheet and those we remember in our hearts: (names). Lord we pray that those caring for them have knowledge, wisdom and patience. We pray for those who are lonely, fearful, homeless, overwhelmed or depressed. Lord give them a sense of your presence with them and the strength to take just one day at a time.
 Creator God: we give you thanks and praise.

Heavenly Father, earlier we heard a little of what Paul wrote to the Ephesians and as faithful believers we humbly pray to the one "who is able to do immeasurably more than we can ask or imagine. . ." In the words of Jesus Christ our Lord:
Our Father in Heaven . . .

We have been directed by the Diocese that as from 9 July 2021 it is now mandatory for all churches to use the 'Check In Qld' app to collect attendee contact information.

Please continue to be vigilant when coming to the church and use the app. For those who are unable to use this form of registering, we will record your details in our paper register.

Due to the latest restrictions in South east Qld, face masks still need to be worn during worship. People need to be seated during morning tea. Face masks can be temporarily removed to eat and drink.

CALENDARS

If you have any unwanted Calendars, please bring to the church. The MU ladies will be using these to make up picture booklets for the aged care homes.

Collection for Zephyr Education

During the month of July, the Mothers' Union will be collecting items for Zephyr Education. This organisation was founded by a group of volunteers who got together in 2013 to help children at Domestic violence shelters to get on with their education by supplying them with everything they need to start at their new school. To this end we will be collecting any sort of lunch boxes, water bottles, children's underwear, socks or pyjamas.

The last day for donations is Sunday 1 August.

(Many thanks for your support, Jenny Bullock, Algester AMUA President)

Once again the Office is running very low on supplies of A4 photocopy paper. Any donations would be much appreciated.

It is with great sadness that Audrey Allsop, a long-time parishioner of our church, has passed away unexpectedly after a short illness. She died in hospital in the early hours of Friday morning, 23 July.

Details of her funeral will be announced as they come to hand.

THEME: JESUS FEEDS THE 5000

SENTENCE:

'I am the living bread that came down from heaven,' says the Lord. 'Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.'

John 6.51

Our Parish Prayer:

Heavenly Father,
help us to grow in love, faith and obedience as we discover meaning and direction for today
and hope for tomorrow
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY:

Gracious God,
you have placed within the hearts of all your children
a longing for your word and a hunger for your truth:
grant that, believing in the one whom you have sent,
we may know him to be the true bread of heaven
and the food of eternal life, Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit
be glory and honour for ever and ever. Amen.

A READING FROM 2 SAMUEL, CHAPTER 11,
VERSES 1-15:

In the spring of the year, the time when kings go out to battle, David sent Joab with his officers and all Israel with him; they ravaged the Ammonites, and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem. It happened, late one afternoon, when David rose from his couch and was walking about on the roof of the king's house, that he saw from the roof a woman bathing; the woman was very beautiful. David sent someone to inquire about the woman. It was reported, 'This is Bathsheba daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite.' So David sent messengers to fetch her, and she came to him, and he lay with her. (Now she was purifying herself after her period.) Then she returned to her house. The woman conceived; and she sent and told David, 'I am pregnant.' So David sent word to Joab, 'Send me Uriah the Hittite.' And Joab sent Uriah to David. When Uriah came to him, David asked how Joab and the people fared, and how the war was going. Then David said to Uriah, 'Go down to your house, and wash your feet.' Uriah went out of the king's house, and there followed him a present from the king. But Uriah slept at the entrance of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house. When they told David, 'Uriah did not go down to his house', David said to Uriah, 'You have just come from a journey. Why did you not go down to your house?' Uriah said to David, 'The ark and Israel and Judah remain in booths; and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field; shall I then go to my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do such a thing.' Then David said to Uriah, 'Remain here today also, and tomorrow I will send you back.' So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day. On the next day, David invited him to eat and drink in his presence and made him drunk; and in the evening he went out to lie on his couch with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.

In the morning David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. In the letter he wrote, 'Set Uriah in the forefront of the hardest fighting, and then draw back from him, so that he may be struck down and die.'

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF PSALMS:

PSALM 14

- 1 Fools have said in their hearts 'There is no God':
they have all become vile and abominable in their doings,
there is not one that does good.
- 2 The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of Adam:
to see if there were any who would act wisely and seek after God.

- 3 But they have all turned out of the way, they have all alike become corrupt:
there is none that does good, no not one.
- 4 Are all the evildoers devoid of understanding:
who eat up my people as they eat bread, and do not pray to the Lord?
- 5 They shall be struck with terror:
for God is with the company of the righteous.
- 6 Though they frustrate the poor in their hopes:
surely the Lord is their refuge.
- 7 O that deliverance for Israel might come forth from Zion:
when the Lord turns again the fortunes of his people,
then shall Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

A READING FROM THE LETTER OF PAUL TO THE EPHESIANS, CHAPTER 3, VERSES 14-21:

For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
ACCORDING TO JOHN, CHAPTER 6, VERSES 1-21:

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming towards him, Jesus said to Philip, 'Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?' He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, 'Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little.' One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, 'There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?' Jesus said, 'Make the people sit down.' Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, 'Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost.' So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, 'This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world.' When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake, got into a boat, and started across the lake to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The lake became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the lake and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, 'It is I; do not be afraid.' Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land towards which they were going.

This is the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ
