Prayers of the People:

We have come together, the people of God, drawn by his Spirit, longing for his word, to praise the holy name of the Lord, to share the glorious news of grace, to pray for our needs and the pains of the world, to rejoice in his love and be sent in his peace.

Lord in your mercy.....Hear our Prayer

We thank God for the young people we know personally in our families and in our community. We pray for patience and wisdom for their parents, as they seek the balance between encouraging independence and providing sensible boundaries. We pray for all young people who are working hard at studies, at sport or in their employment. We pray that they will know the pleasure of achievement but not lose sight of the joy of living. We ask that they will all become the people they were created to be.

Lord in your mercy.....Hear our Prayer

Lord Jesus, you greeted your disciples with the words, 'Peace be with you'. May we, too, hear your words and know your peace in our hearts today and always. We pray for peace in all troubled areas of the world. May all leaders desire and work for peace; abandoning selfishness, greed and arrogance that leads to war, and instead fostering understanding and co-operation. We pray for all peoples in Pakistan as they experience and go through the extreme weather which has happened recently. Due to the floods there are many without homes and conditions are not good. We continue to pray for Ukraine and all the people who are trying to protect their country and the people who live there.

Lord in your mercy.....Hear our Prayer

Lord, we pray that our churches will be welcoming and accessible to the community around them. May all who seek it find a home and family within, who will love and accept them as they are. We pray for the faithful witness of our members in Algester, as they show Christ's love in all that they do. We pray for Fr. Denis as he takes a break with family and we pray for Fr. Doug as we welcome him here with us today. Heavenly Father give us vision and courage to reach out to those in our local area.

Lord in your mercy.....Hear our Prayer

Lord, your Son brought healing and wholeness to those who were suffering. We pray that you will be with all who are sick in body, mind or spirit, that they will know your healing touch and the peace of your presence. We pray for all who work in the medical professions, that they will have sympathy and understanding of their patients and the skills they need for this demanding work. We hold up to you today dear Lord those on our prayer list.....Denver; Allan; Carol; Katherine; Susan; Tammy; John; Murray; Kim; Ray; Mike; Karen; Tony Johnson; Sally; Murray; Mary; Christina; Sandra S; Zach & family; Rod; Jenny & Bough; Paul; Carita; Alexander; Susan, Andrew; Lorraine; Janine; for Peace and Harmony for Papua New Guinea (a country in turmoil); Juliana; Sharlene

Accept these prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught us to pray,
Our Father in heaven ...

PRAYER AND READINGS

THEME: TAKE UP THE CROSS AND FOLLOW ME

SENTENCE:

Whoever does not carry the cross and follow Jesus cannot be his disciple.

Luke 14.27

OUR PARISH PRAYER:

Heavenly Father,
help us to grow in love, faith and obedience as we discover meaning and direction for today
and hope for tomorrow through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY:

God of the ages,
you call the Church to keep watch in the world
and to discern the signs of the times:
grant us the wisdom that your Spirit bestows,
so that with courage we may proclaim your prophetic word,
and complete the work you have set before us;
through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A READING FROM JEREMIAH, CHAPTER 18, VERSES 1-11:

The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord : 'Come, go down to the potter's house, and there I will let you hear my words.' So I went down to the potter's house, and there he was working at his wheel. The vessel he was making of clay was spoiled in the potter's hand, and he reworked it into another vessel, as seemed good to him. Then the word of the Lord came to me: Can I not do with you, O house of Israel, just as this potter has done? says the Lord . Just like the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel. At one moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom, that I will pluck up and break down and destroy it, but if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from its evil, I will change my mind about the disaster that I intended to bring on it. And at another moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will build and plant it, but if it does evil in my sight, not listening to my voice, then I will change my mind about the good that I had intended to do to it. Now, therefore, say to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Thus says the Lord : Look, I am a potter shaping evil against you and devising a plan against you. Turn now, all of you from your evil way, and amend your ways and your doings.

Thanks be to God

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF PSALMS:

Psalms 139.1-5,12-18

- 1 O Lord, you have searched me out and known me:
you know when I sit or when I stand,
you comprehend my thoughts long before.
- 2 You discern my path and the places where I rest:
you are acquainted with all my ways.
- 3 For there is not a word on my tongue:
but you, Lord, know it altogether.
- 4 You have encompassed me behind and before:
and have laid your hand upon me.
- 5 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me:
so high that I cannot endure it.
- 12 For you have created my inward parts:
you knit me together in my mother's womb.
- 13 I will praise you, for you are to be feared:
fearful are your acts, and wonderful your works.
- 14 You knew my soul,
and my bones were not hidden from you:
when I was formed in secret,
and woven in the depths of the earth.
- 15 Your eyes saw my limbs when they were yet imperfect:
and in your book were all my members written;

SEPTEMBER 4, 2022 - THIRTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

- 16 Day by day they were fashioned:
and not one was late in growing.
- 17 How deep are your thoughts to me, O God:
and how great is the sum of them!
- 18 Were I to count them,
they are more in number than the sand:
were I to come to the end, I would still be with you.

A READING FROM THE LETTER OF PAUL TO PHILEMON, CHAPTER 1, VERSES 1-25:

Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, To Philemon our dear friend and co-worker, to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in your house: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. When I remember you in my prayers, I always thank my God because I hear of your love for all the saints and your faith towards the Lord Jesus. I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective when you perceive all the good that we may do for Christ. I have indeed received much joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, my brother. For this reason, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do your duty, yet I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love—and I, Paul, do this as an old man, and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become during my imprisonment. Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful both to you and to me. I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you. I wanted to keep him with me, so that he might be of service to me in your place during my imprisonment for the gospel; but I preferred to do nothing without your consent, in order that your good deed might be voluntary and not something forced. Perhaps this is the reason he was separated from you for a while, so that you might have him back for ever, no longer as a slave but as more than a slave, a beloved brother—especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. If he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. I,

Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. I say nothing about your owing me even your own self. Yes, brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ. Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say. One thing more—prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping through your prayers to be restored to you. Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends greetings to you, and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow-workers. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Hear the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

THE GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST ACCORDING TO LUKE, CHAPTER 14, VERSES 25-35:

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Now large crowds were travelling with him; and he turned and said to them, 'Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, "This fellow began to build and was not able to finish." Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions. 'Salt is good; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure heap; they throw it away. Let anyone with ears to hear listen!'

This is the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ
